Sundays 9:45 AM-10:30 AM (Sept. 27; Oct. 4, 11, 18, 25; Nov. 1, 8, 15)

Restlessness in our body. Constant negative thoughts. Inability to focus. Most of us relate to these feelings, especially this fall. Worry can become an all-consuming part of life. In this Bible Study, nurse and writer Skip McDonald looks at a variety of Old and New Testament Scripture passages that cover experiences of general anxiety, worry, and panic. No fee.

Raising White Kids: Bringing Up Children in a Racially Unjust America by Jennifer Harvey (8 weeks)

Leaders: Janet Ray and Tom Sardina

Every other Tuesday 7:30 PM-8:30 PM (Sept. 22; Oct. 6, 20; Nov. 3, 17; Dec. 1, 15, 29)

This book study is for parents, grandparents, educators, and others who want to equip children to participate in a society that is racially diverse yet full of racial tensions. How can we talk about race without making our children feel bad about being white?

We may not always agree with Dr. Harvey's ideas, but they may help us find our own path to becoming anti-racist.

Book is $10

We are called to be part of the Blessed Community, but what does that mean for us in Wisconsin? What does it mean for us to re-read the message with cross-cultural input today? What did it mean for those who heard Jesus preaching on the hill?
