

Covenant of Care

We wear masks when we gather, because we want everyone to experience the blessings of worship and fellowship and be safe doing so. We are a family of faith, the vaccinated and the unvaccinated, the young and the old, the healthy and those with compromised health. This is the simple way we care for one another at this time.