

The wearing of masks is now optional at ECUMC. We continue to believe young children and those who may be health compromised deserve our care and protection, so please ask for and respect their preferences when gathering.

The Nursery care givers will continue to wear masks.