NEXT WEEK: SUMMER CHOIR

Summer Choir is singing on Sunday, June 28. We'll meet in the Music Room at 8:00 AM to run through the anthem. We will sing at both the 8:30 AM Sanctuary Worship and 10:00 AM Celebration Hall Worship.

You don't have to be a choir member to join this pick-up group!

Questions? Contact Bill at billf@ec-umc.com or 414-881-3023.

NEXT WEEK: SUMMER BOOK CLUB

While the American story has not always been perfect, we've been sustained by a belief in progress even in the gloomiest of times. Jon Meacham considers the contest of hope over fear--a struggle that continues even now.

He writes about hard topics including the Civil War; the backlash against immigrants in World War I; the fight for women's rights; the isolationism of America before World War II; the anti-Communist witch-hunts led by Senator McCarthy.

Meacham asserts, "We have come through darkness before."

Sunday, June 28: 11 AM in Fellowship Hall

Jon Meacham - The Soul of America

Later this Summer

Sunday, July 26 Mitch Albom - Twice

Sunday, August 23 Francisco Cantu - The Line Becomes a River

COMMUNICATION UPDATE: Due to staff vacations, there will be no Community News or announcements/slides on Sunday, July 5.
