For Your Saints

God, we thank you for your saints and for their time among us here,
In their faith, their service, and their ready smile we've felt you near.
In their steadfast love of others and their persevering grace, we have known your living presence; we have seen your human face.

God, we thank you for the faith that lifts our hearts and lights our way, for your hidden, healing presence walking with us day by day.
As we face death's shadows, still we walk with courage and with love, persevering in the faith that you have granted from above.

"Children, I will never leave you or forsake you," you have said.
You have been our helper, God, so there is nothing that we dread.
By your grace that never fails us, guide, sustain and lead us on,
'till we step with grateful hearts into the light of heaven's dawn.
